Basin Installation:

1. This basin is supplied with a cut out template, due to manufacturing variations it is recommended you cross check the cut-out template dimensions against the physical basin dimensions and adjust cut out size as, or if required.
2. Lay the template in the desired position on the bench and tape down to secure the template into position.
3. Prior to cutting the hole, check to ensure the cut-out does not interfere with draws or internal walls of the vanity cabinet.
4. Cut the hole into the vanity cabinet top.
5. Fit the basin into the cut-out hole to ensure the basin fits correctly and no further adjustment of the cut-out hole is required.
6. Prior to fitting the basin it is recommended the tapware and waste are assembled to the basin for ease of assembly.
7. Prior to fitting the basin to the bench top run a plumbers grade silicone seal around the cut-out hole.
8. Insert the basin into the bench top cut-out and align so the basin is square to the vanity cabinet top.
9. Apply a bead of plumbers grade silicone around the outer edge of the basin to prevent water going under the basin. Allow the silicone to dry.
10. Connect Basin to drainage system as per Australian standards and local requirement.
